Part 2: Rules of Participation – Regulations

§ 1 Date and Duration The Regulations define the rights and obligations of Participants of the in-person Conference. A Participant is a legal adult who registers, accepts the Regulations, and is qualified by the Organizer. The Organizer reserves the right to amend the Regulations for legal or security reasons or to change the Date or format of the Conference due to circumstances beyond the Organizer's control.

§ 2 Registration Participation requires prior registration via the Form. Registration constitutes acceptance of the Regulations and the granting of licenses and authorizations specified therein.

§ 3 General Rules of Participation Participants must confirm their presence at the reception. Video monitoring may be used for security. Participants must comply with safety, health and safety (BHP), and fire regulations. Disruptive behavior may result in exclusion from the Conference. Conference materials are for personal use only.

§ 4 Presentations Submission of an Abstract constitutes the granting of a non-exclusive, perpetual, and worldwide license to the Organizer for its use in organization and promotion. Speakers are responsible for ensuring their Presentation does not violate third-party rights or contain hate speech. Speakers grant the Organizer a broad license to use, record, and distribute the Presentation across all fields of exploitation (Internet, print, broadcasting, etc.) .

§ 5 Recording of the Conference The Conference will be recorded via photo and video. Speakers consent to the recording of their Presentations for educational, promotional, and archival purposes.

§ 6 Image By registering, Participants consent to the unlimited use of their image in connection with the Conference for promotional and informational purposes. Participants are prohibited from recording or photographing the Conference without the Organizer's consent.

§ 7 Final Provisions The license and authorizations granted are royalty-free. Polish law shall apply, and any disputes will be subject to the jurisdiction of Polish courts. The Information Clause regarding personal data constitutes an annex to the Regulations.
